

Girls Night Out

Tribute to Legendary Women of Country Music

Based in Minneapolis, Minnesota, this 9-piece group performs classic and new country focused on the fantastic females of Country Music.

Singers Jennifer Urbach, Erica Hanson and Raven Wolfe trade leads and lend rich harmonies to the mix as they take the listener on a journey through 6 decades of country music, paying homage to the talented females who paved the way for women in country music.

The vocal trio is backed by an incredible band of musicians featuring band leader and New York City native Donnie Doyle (drums), Max Luebeck (bass guitar), Neil Hendrickson (lead guitar), Jeff Leiknes (keys/banjo/guitars), Natalie McCann (fiddle), and Justin Collins (steel/electric guitars).

A favorite at Minnesota's Moondance Country Jam, the group is also a three-time nominee for Best Tribute Band at the Midwest Country Music Association Awards.
