Tribute to Women in Music in the Totally Awesome 1980s!

An incredibly entertaining show and a fiercely loyal fan base have made Ladies of the 80s one of the Midwest's most in demand acts.

A favorite at casinos, theaters and festivals, the group brings their own special magic to the genre, engaging a multi-generational demographic with crowd interaction, costumes, props, and expert musicianship.

The group's most recent show "Girls Just Wanna Have Fun" brings even more excitement to the stage with special guest cameos, professional dancers, and a full multimedia experience.

Fueled by the resurgence of 80s icons and one hit wonders and supported by internet radio's largest demographic, the 80s are alive and well!

Focused on the music of the fabulous females of the era, Ladies is fronted by 2 multi-talented females who bring their own special magic to each performance. Backed by an ultra-solid male power trio, the group incorporates all genres of the era and offers something for everyone. Strong harmonies are a signature of the group and the Ladies double on keyboard, guitars, saxophone, harmonica, and percussion.
